ToyBlock Music GiveAway Limited Edition "EATS PASTE" Children's Music CD!

Hey Moms and Dads! I have in my hot little hands the very LAST LIMITED EDITION ToyBlock Music CD "EATS PASTE"!!! This now "SOLD OUT" CD of Children's Music was released on April 1, 2010 and one of you will WIN IT!!

This CD of children's music is what we parents have been waiting for! Each song has been interpreted in different genres by different artists. There are seven children's classic songs featuring a mix of pop, funk and folk. A mix that will inspire your children and NOT leave you running to the medicine cabinet for headache relief.

The friendly people at ToyBlock Music contacted me and believe me, I jumped at the chance to try out this CD of Children's Music they promised "Wouldn't Stink"!

I knew exactly how to put this music to the test. We tried it out with our four-year-old daughter during the drive to our cottage. Nothing to distract her and no place for us to get away from it. And guess what! She loved it and my husband and I not only enjoyed it, but found ourselves singing along!

And just like they promised, finally "Kids music that doesn't stink!"

I love a company that gives back and ToyBlock Music does just that. A portion of all proceeds goes to support the work on Infant and Pediatric Gastroesophageal Reflux Disorder.

You can preview the songs and buy downloads here as well as check out their other merchandise

Or

You can WIN the LAST Limited Edition CD "EATS PASTE" and these cool stickers here!!
